

Information sent to students on November 1st 2020

Dear students,

I remind you, because this information was given earlier and maybe not everyone noticed that Monday, November 2 is a day off. There are no classes and the University administration does not work.